Journey To Africa

Palm Beach Zoo & Conservation Society Hosts Annual Tropical Safari Gala

PALM BEACH ZOO & CONSERVATION SOCIETY'S annual fundraising event, Tropical Safari Gala: Journey to Africa will take place April 1, on the lush, tropical grounds of the Palm Beach Zoo. Michele Kessler, Chairman of the Zoo's board of directors, and Thomas C. Quick, board of directors, will serve as Co-Chair of the event.

Large lighted giraffes will welcome guests to a festive cocktail reception featuring the Zoo's animal residents, followed by a haute cuisine dining experience, live auction and dancing with Sultans of Swing. The popular event supports the Zoo's mission of inspiring people to act on behalf of wildlife and the natural world.

JoAnna and Stephen Myers will be honored at the event as Gala Stewardship Award Recipients for their decades of support for the Zoo and wildlife.

Major sponsors include Bank of America, Beam Suntory, Findlay Galleries, Florida Crystals, FPL, Gunster, Jaguar of Palm Beach, JPMorgan Chase & Co., Kochman & Ziska, Morgan Stanley Private Wealth Management, PLC, Romph Pou Agency and Tito's Handmade Vodka.

Tropical Safari Gala: Journey to Africa supports the Zoo's conservation mission and expert animal care.

Palm Beach Zoo & Conservation Society helps save wildlife in wild places. As a leader in conservation, the Zoo is proud of its heritage of caring for unique and often rare species of animals in the wild and on 23 lush jungle acres in West Palm Beach. Palm Beach Zoo is honored to continue its more than 50-year tradition of connecting the community to wildlife.
